Medical.

DR. J. C. YOUNG,

Medical and Surgical INSTITUTE.

, CONSULTATIONS, IN ALL CASES, FREE.

, CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.

, IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ

I am aware that by dwelling upon so uninviting a [illegible] the decay of manly vigor through the [illegible] principle of life, the ignorant may [illegible], but the desire to point out to those who suffer [illegible] and decay, the true cause of their affliction [illegible] not un[illegible] to be forced into abeyance. [illegible] the terrible disease of Seminal Weakness [illegible] but the practical specialist who devotes his time [illegible] but its presence can be [illegible] most [illegible] induced by noting the following [illegible] Weakness of the back and limbs; [illegible] loss of muscular power; nervousness; [illegible] accompanied by hot head; [illegible] short breath; flushings of the face [illegible] confusion of the mind; loss of memory [illegible] colorless; slight discharges [illegible] trembling; palpitation of the heart [illegible] variable temper, etc. YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the [illegible] stated above, pause to [illegible] moment in which you may [illegible] You may feel strong now, [illegible] have ever practiced the vice of self-abuse even [illegible] you have the seeds of [illegible] and their undermining influence will, sooner or later, shake the fair edifice of your strength [illegible] make you a helpless, abject being. [illegible] Therein lies the [illegible] while the patient is being treated [illegible] the Heart, Lungs, Brain, or Di[illegible] he sinks into a general debility that soon adds [illegible] the list of the victims of the terrible disorder. [illegible] the best form and languishing steps, the [illegible] of the fascinating vice! Mark the [illegible] complaint in the hollow cheek and [illegible] is one of the premonitory symptoms. [illegible] it is easily shaken off, but it grows eventually [illegible] disinclination to pursue his regular bu[illegible] apprehensive, and restless nights [illegible] It is the nature of the complaint to [illegible] that leave the poor victim but little hope [illegible] In a single instant it may wither your [illegible] and blast your honest aspirations. Marriage is sought by a natural impulse as a [illegible] This is an error of the first magnitude, for [illegible] prepared for the exigencies of the [illegible] fails, and he finds himself in a deplorable [illegible] is but the slightest hope of [illegible] If the marriage should result in offspring, they [illegible] led, decrepid, and degenerate. [DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO SEPTEMBER 16.

Political Intelligence.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—Later news from Maine says the vote was the largest ever polled. Almost all the larger cities and towns show Republican gains as compared with last year's vote. Representative Blaine estimates the total Republican vote at seventy five thousand; Democratic vote, fifty three thousand.

A Republican special says that Secretary Stanton has gone to Ohio to take the stump for the Republican ticket.

Solicitor Binckley has tendered his resignation.

The Tribune's Columbus, Ohio, special charges that large numbers of men are being imported into Indiana from Kentucky, to vote the Democratic ticket.

No further survivor from the Hippocampus disaster have made their appearance. All hope is now abandoned that any more were rescued. Twenty six are known to be missing.

Terrible Explosion.

ROCHESTER, (N. Y.) Sept. 15.—A locomotive exploded last night in the depot of the Erie Railroad, killing the engineer, brakemen and two young ladies who were standing near the engine. Another girl was killed, by the falling walls of the house. Still another was badly injured. The depot and buildings in the vicinity were badly shattered. Parts of the boiler were thrown a mile distant.

Slave Traders—Destructive Fire.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The iron steamer Dan Barton has been fitting out at various piers in this city and sailed six weeks ago under very mysterious circumstances. Information now in the hands of the United States Marshal Murray, leads to the belief that she intends to take a cargo of slaves from Africa to Brazil or Cuba. Another vessel is fitting out here it is believed for the same purpose.

The Philadelphia Print Works, attached to the Washington Manufacturing Co's Mills at Gloucester, N. J., were completely destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss about a quarter million dollars. Fully insured.

The Whalen Case—Foreign Matters.

OTTAWA, Sept. 14.—The counsel in the Whalen case finished their arguments to-day. The judge charged the jury, occupying five hours and forty minutes. The Court adjourned till to-morrow to receive the verdict.

The London press variously comment upon the recent speech of the Emperor at Chalons. The following words were said by the Emperor on that occasion: "I will say nothing more, as public prints are sure to draw prophecies of war however moderately my words are toned."

The September Session.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Senator Morgan and Representative Schenck have issued the following: The President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives were, by resolution of Congress, directed to adjourn their respective Houses until the third Monday of September, and on that day, unless they were otherwise directed, to further adjourn the respective houses, until the first Monday in December. In accordance with the request of the Republican members of the fortieth Congress, the undersigned decide and respectfully recommend that there be a full attendance of both houses of Congress on Monday, the 21st day of September, promptly at 12 o'clock noon. It is not expected that general legislative business will be entered into at that time, or that the session need be longer than necessary to provide for another adjournment. It is important that there should be such general attendance as will secure the presence of a quorum of each house. The general impression is favorable to adjournment until October 21st.

The Peruvian Minister to-day presented a letter from Senor Balta, the newly elected President of Peru, announcing his accession. The President in his reply referred appropriately to the great calamity which visited Peru, and expressed the universal sympathy with the sufferers.

Southern Affairs.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 15.—Gen. Rosseau has arrived and assumed command. The police troubles have not yet ended. Some of the policemen have not been paid for eight months. A large number met at Lafayette Square to day and sent a deputation to the Mayor, asking for immediate relief.

ATLANTA, GA., Sept. 15.—A bill was passed by the House, yesterday, excluding negroes from serving on juries. It is understood to day that the House, after a storming debate, declared negro members claiming only one-eighth negro blood, to be ineligible, by a unanimous vote. 69 Republicans refused to vote.

Grand Celebration at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 15.—The parade of the Knights Templars this morning was one of the finest and most interesting events that ever occurred here. Over thirty commanders were in the procession representing nearly twenty States. A still greater number would have been present but for the detention of steamers and railroads. About 3,500 Knights were in line and a number of carriages followed containing a large number of the highest officers of the various orders. After marching through a number of the principal streets, occupying over an hour, the procession halted at the Masonic Hall where the business of the conclave will be considered. The streets on the line of march were crowded with spectators who greeted the delegations and distinguished officers with cheers, the waving of handkerchiefs and other manifestations of welcome. Several residences on the rout were handsomely decorated with Masonic emblems. The City Council yesterday unanimously tendered the hospitality of the city to the various visiting delegations.

The Grand Royal Arch Templars of Missouri gave a grand banquet to the Grand Chapter of the United States to-night. About 200 guests were present, including several of the most distinguished members of the Order.

UTICA, (N. Y.) Sept. 15.—The Grand Lodge of Good Templars met yesterday. Over 1,000 delegates were present.

Further Political Intelligence.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—The Republicans yesterday renominated N. B. Judd for Congress.

The State Grand Lodge of Good Templars is now in session at Galesburg. Efforts are being made to organize openly on strictly temperance principles.

There is nothing later from Maine. The estimates agree that the Union majority will be 20,000. The vote stood nearly thus: Chamberlain, 75,000; Pillsbury, 55,000. The Republicans throughout the country are rejoicing over the result. A special dispatch from Boston says Butler's renomination for Congress is defeated.

Central America.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Panama advices to September 4th, state that another bloodless revolution had occurred, resulting in President Ponce being arrested and deposed by one Corezo. The latter had proclaimed himself President and was forming a new Cabinet.

Tornado in Minnesota.

ST. PETERS, (MINN.), Sept. 11. There was a terrific tornado on the Minnesota river on Friday night. Houses and barns were blown into fragments and grain and stock scattered in every direction. A number of persons were injured; one fatally.

Whalen Sentenced.

OTTAWA, Sept. 15.—There was a large crowd outside the Court room this morning. Very few were admitted. The prisoner on being brought in, looked pale and nervous. The jury returned a verdict of guilty. The prisoner, who heard the announcement with great composure, then made a long address to the Court, in which he emphatically and solemnly asserted his entire innocence of the crime. He denied having any connection with the Fenians, and declared he had been condemned because he was a Roman Catholic, and that the evidence had been deliberately concocted to convict him. He was going on to speak of the Court treatment of Irishmen by England, when he was interrupted by the Chief Justice, who pointed out that whatever might be the case elsewhere, in this country Irishmen and all other classes were treated alike before the law. He had no reasonable grounds for complaint. After solemnly cautioning the prisoner against entertaining any hopes of pardon and imploring him to prepare for the future, his lordship sentenced him to be executed on Thursday, the 10th day of December.

The Press on the Maine Election.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The Herald says a political earthquake swept over Maine, yesterday.

The Times says the Maine election shows that the people have made up their minds to elect Gen. Grant and Colfax. It is important as indicating the drift of popular sentiment.

The Tribune considers the Maine election the commencement of a tidal wave on which Grant will sweep over the country.

The World says the Republican majority is reduced (!) and congratulates the Democrats of Maine on yesterday's fight.

The Sun says the Democrats have met a serious reverse in Maine. It considers the influence of this on the coming election will be great.

The Express says nobody expected Maine to go otherwise than it did (!) but if Democrats come out as heavily in other places, several States may be carried sure for the latter (!).

The Post considers the election as complete a triumph for the Republican party as ever before attained.

The Commercial says the thanks of the nation are due to Maine for her victory yesterday.

Army Matters.

The President directs Gen. Rosseau, commanding the Department of Louisiana, to be assigned to duty according to his brevet rank of Major General. The late order assigning Col. Buchanan to duty according to his brevet rank of Major General, is revoked, and he will be assigned according to his brevet rank of Brigadier General.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—A Washington special says a reduction of the custom expenses will be made along the whole northern frontier.

Not more than half a dozen Congressmen are at Washington. The result of the Maine election strengthens the sentiment against the September session.

The case against Commissioner Rollins was up to-day in the court, which adjourned till to-morrow.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—Later advices from Rio say that according to Brazilian reports a detachments Paraguayans troops left behind in Sanchaco, in the evacuation of Humaita were surrounded by Allied forces and surrendered unconditionally with twelve pieces of artillery. The fortification of Humaita had been razed to the ground. At last accounts the whole Allied army had commenced a march to lay seige to the fortified position of Lopez.

It is generally considered that the events of the last fortnight have made little change in the political condition on the continent, either to lessen or increase the chances of war. While on the one hand the press of Germany assumed a quieter tone as proof that they were confident of peace, on the other hand it is known that France has refused a formal demand made by Negra, Italian Ambassador, for the recall of the French troops from Rome, and at the same time the Prince Regent has brought to Paris a proposal from Spain to cement an alliance with France by sending 30,000 soldiers to Rome. The proposition, and the approaching election, looks warlike.

Reverdy Johnson had an interview with the Queen yesterday, being introduced by Lord Stanley. He presented his credentials as American Minister.

The London Times says Johnson, the American Minister has carte blanche from his government settling the Alabama claims. The case presents but little trouble. The only difficulty is the reluctance of the American government to settle the difficulty growing out of former resentments. No American statesman ever believed that the Alabama escaped with the contrivance of Great Britain. There might be a question as to the inadequate laws making England answerable but this could be easily settled. The real grievance of the United States was in the differences in the civil war and willingness of England to see the Union destroyed. They think we should have shown active sympathy with the North; that the Confederacy was based on human slavery and should at once have been condemned in that the Republican party was the true friend of England and that it was wrong even to doubt the success of the Federal arms. The anger of the Americans was due to their conscientiousness of England's want of sympathy in their hour of peril, but anger of right has been enough indulged. He now cuts the past adrift and the thing is as good as settled. Legal points will not stand in the way. The only thing to be ascertained is the responsibility of England to fix proper indemnity.

KIEL, Sept. 15.—King William, of Prussia, has arrived here on a tour of military inspection. He visited the University to day and was received with appropriate ceremonies. The faculty presented an address in which they referred to the tranquility now existing throughout Europe, and expressed the hope that it would remain unbroken. The King, in his reply, said he did not see any cause for the disturbance of the peace of Europe. In the Army and Navy would be held the vigor of fatherland. They have proved that they do not shun a combat, but if compelled into a conflict, they will fight it out.

TRIEST, Sept. 14.—Farragut and squadron have arrived.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The telegraphic report of the South American earthquake has caused much excitement in the commercial world, which was eager for full details.

The Pall Mall Gazette has a leading article on the prospects of peace or war. It says that in every capital of Europe the belief that a great and immediate war is pending grows daily. The best informed men say it will break out before the end of the year.

PARIS, Sept. 12.—The Patrie thinks that the report that the Prussian army is about to be reduced, is false.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 12.—The International Congress of workingmen adjourned yesterday. A resolution was adopted advising workmen to abstain from trades during war. An address was adopted urging the workmen to oppose war and refuse to countenance assassination, and to use their efforts to induce others to do the same.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16.—When the Union State Central and County Committees applied to the California Guards to fire 200 guns in honor of the Union victory in Maine, they were informed that orders had been received from Sacramento forbidding the use of the public armament for political purposes. As there was not sufficient time to make other arrangements, the Executive Committee have therefore determined to postpone the firing of the salute until the receipt of official figures.

About daybreak this morning, Geo. E. Obinghausen, at the corner of Third and Howard streets, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a common clasp knife while laboring under a fit of insanity.

Last night the barge Dick, in tow of the steamer Hembey from Stockton, ran into and stove the ship Midnight, which was at anchor in the stream. The ship is so badly injured that it is thought her cargo of grain which she had just taken in at Vallejo, will have to be discharged.

Arthur Quinn, formerly a saloon keeper at the Mission has fallen heir to an estate of $3,000,000 and a title of nobility in England.

Last night the body of a man named Ferguson was found in a lodging house. The man had apparently been dead about three hours. On a table was a bottle which had contained strychnine.

The steamer Ocean Queen sailed to-day from New York for Aspinwall with 600 passengers and 1,000 tons freight, including 527 firkins butter.

The United States authorities fired a salute at noon from Fort Alcatraz in honor of the anniversary of Mexican independence. The Mexicans resident in the city will fire a salute of 100 guns this evening.

Parepa Rosa will start on a concert tour about the middle of October. She intends to visit San Jose, Stockton, Sacramento, Marysville, Grass Valley, and return for New York by the overland route.

The Pacific Mail steamer Montana arrived from Panama about 10 o'clock this morning.

"STATE RIGHTS" NUTS FOR SEYMOUR TO CRACK.—Mr. Seymour, in his letter of acceptance to the Democratic general committee, says: "No man can rightfully enter upon the duties of the Presidential office, unless he is not only willing to carry out the wishes of the people expressed in a constitutional way, but is also prepared to stand up for the rights of minorities. He must be ready to uphold the free exercise of religion. He would denounce measures which would wrong personal or home rights, or the religious conscience of the humblest citizen of the land. He must maintain, without distinction of creed or nationality, all the privileges of American citizenship." What does all this mean? Uphold the rights of minorities! Humbug. If the Democrats of New York see fit to disfranchise negroes, how can he help it? If the law of New Hampshire is put in force, and all Catholics excluded from office, even that of a constable, how can Seymour help it, even if he should be elected President? If the rebels of M[illegible] should put one of their old laws, never yet repealed, in force, and thereby hinder every Catholic from approaching within one hundred yards of the State capitol, how is the President of the United States to see the Catholic Marylander protected? If the descendants of besotted Virginia hunt up all the old laws, never yet re[illegible], which says Roman Catholics and negroes cannot give testimony in the courts of law except in [illegible] where all the parties are Catholics or negroes, what could the President do to protect the rights of minors? Nothing, according to Mr. Seymour's doctrine of State rights. But [illegible] assertions of Mr. Seymour are baits to catch Irish Catholic votes; mere words, and amount to nothing. They are simply bosh; but I am [illegible] they will be followed by a certain number of the "blind" followers of Democracy in this city and elsewhere. However, there are but few Irish Catholics whose eyes Seymour [illegible] dust in, and they are decreasing every day.

REPUBLICAN PRINCIPLES

THE "IRISH REPUBLIC" NEWSPAPER, PUBlished in New York City, is devoted to the promulgation of the principles of the Republican party. It is now engaged in a bitter and most arduous struggle with all the reactionary elements which have so long controlled the votes of adopted citizens of Irish birth. Its circulation and influence are being widely ext[illegible] but as in all such enterprises, the results are all cor[illegible] in the efforts at maintaining and ext[illegible] that [illegible] The paper is a large and handsome Weekly, published at a subscription price of five dollars per annum. We propose to devote our columns to the great work of the pending campaign. We will send the Irish Republic for four months, for ONE DOLLAR, in packages of ten and upwards.

Members of Congress and all who are concerned in the triumph of Republican principles, will find the Republic an efficient campaign document.

A Repetition of 1864

The Herald is working with great industry, in the vain endeavor to diminish the importance of the great and significant Republican triumphs in Vermont and Maine It undertakes to show that the returns indicate Radical losses and falsifies the records to make out its case To begin with, it says the telegraph reports a Radical majority of 15 000 in Maine when the dispatch published in its own columns reported the majority to be more than 20 000 Again it says the majority for Lincoln in the State in 1864 was 21 122 The 1864 Democratic Almanac, a New York Day Book publication says it was 17,592 In 1867, the Herald remarks, the prohibitory liquor law was submitted to the people at the State elections in consequence of which side issue as all the Radical papers then informed us the Republican majority dropped to 11 614 But last year you ignored the side issue and said (September 17 1867) the great gains exhibited in the late election in Maine constitutes a gleam of light calculated to cheer the hearts' of the Democracy, and that the returns indicate that the people are beginning to tire of Radical rule, and that the days of the most infamous of all parties are numbered The people of Maine answer these predictions by doubling in 1868 the majority of 1867 and giving that "most infamous of all parties"—the Wade Hampton Democracy—to understand that its days were numbered long ago The efforts of the editor of the Herald to belittle these signal Republican victories are so great that we must reproduce what he wrote on this very same subject just four years ago, when Union men were jubilant over the returns from Vermont and Maine, and rightly judged that they were indicative of the general result in the Presidential election, soon to follow

[From the San Francisco Democratic Press Sept 16 1864]

"THE DUTCH HAVE TAKEN HOLLAND"

The "Blacks" cackle over the reported victory of their party in Vermont and Maine as if it were an unexpected triumph The rejoicing over their victory in these States shows that the Abolitionists are badly scared We certainly had nothing to hope in either of those States, and are only surprised at the exhibition which our opponents make of their evident relief from fear in regard to those confirmed Abolition States We expect no gains from the radical Abolitionists, but from the States where the conservative Union sentiment has heretofore turned the scale in favor of the Administration under the mistaken belief that the Union cause was to be served thereby In the straight issue now made between the Abolitionists and the Democrats we cannot expect much gain to the Democracy either in Maine, Massachusetts or Vermont, but shall gain largely in all the Middle and Western States in favor of the restoration of the Union under the Constitution

How large were your "gains" in the Middle and Western States that year? And do you remember what the result was? If you do not it would be as well for you to reflect a little, for you are going to see 1864 over again

What it Means

The election in Vermont was the first wave in the rising political tide of 1868, and that in Maine adds to its momentum and increases the depth and energy of its flow Maine stands at the head of the Union, and her motto, "Dirigo," is significant of the part she plays in our politics. Every four years her voice is waited for with great interest from one end of the Union to the other, for it is expected to tell with powerful effect in the great contest for the Presidency Maine is a State which is recognized as fairly representing the average sentiment of the country She has a cosmopolite population and a great variety of industries, and her interests are about as varied as those of any State in the Union. The derangement of the finances has been falling heavily upon the people of Maine, and discontent with the ruling power of the country to whom such disorders are often attributed, was as likely to occur in that State as in any other But Maine has come up nobly to her record, and has set an example which must have great influence upon the general result throughout the Union

The nation is not going to disown what it has done and relinquish what it has contended for during the last eight years The reactionists and revolutionists would do well to make up their minds to this fact In the New York Convention the "Lost Cause" was saddled upon the Democratic party. The party bowed submissively to the burden, and Vallandigham, Wade Hampton and Forrest exulted in the mastery they had gained The people are not ready to vote for the revival of the "Lost Cause" In putting down the rebellion their object was to make treason odious. So in these elections, they are again declaring that treason and traitors are odious things. And they will declare it again and again, as often as the Democratic party and Southern rebels present the issue in this shape before them

Mr Dolph's Speech

We ask particular attention to the speech made by Mr Dolph in the Senate, on Monday, which we publish to day As an exposure of the high handed outrage perpetrated by the Democrats in that body it is particularly valuable The arguments are unanswered and unanswerable Every statement of fact is made with clearness and precision and there can be no appeal, by argument, from the positions taken No attempt will even be made to refute it, and it will stand on the record as a convincing exposure of the most flagrant and indecent outrage ever perpetrated in the Legislature of Oregon

A New York paper of the 27th of August says the laudable zeal of the Germans in that city has not yet abated Nearly all the wards of the city have formed German Grant and Colfax clubs and their members are continually increasing In the wards mostly populated by German fellow citizens one club has been found to be insufficient to accommodate all the German residents who are anxious to assist the cause of freedom and progress In the Seventeenth Ward four German Grant and Colfax campaign clubs are fully organized and in the Eleventh Ward, which is also principally inhabited by Germans the second Grant and Colfax club has been organized All looks well

Wanted a Democratic reaction that will run for a year The party purchased one last season warranted to run till after the Presidential election paid a tremendous price for it wound it up and set it going And now the very first time it is wanted the confounded thing has run down and can not be made to go at all The Democracy have been victimized most shamefully by their expensive purchase

LETTERS FROM THE CAPITAL

SALEM Sept [illegible] 1868

The Senate opened to day in much the same lively style which marked the session of yesterday When the roll was called, it appeared that the Clerk pro tem had either forgotten to omit the names of the disfranchised Senators from Multnomah or he had felt himself not quite fortified by the report adopted last evening to undertake such a proceeding The Clerk seems a fair, candid and withal modest young man and I attribute the appearance upon the roll of the names of Messrs Dolph and Powell, to his sense of the unjust and shameful manner in which they had been ousted practically from membership and totally deprived of all the important functions of office At all events their names were called without question, and the disfranchised Senators answered to their names Upon the reading of the records of yesterday, Mr Cornelius objected to a certain part as incorrect and asked leave to have it corrected The error in the record was in relation to the motion to adopt the report of the Committee on Credentials Mr Cornelius stated what should be the record and stated it correctly Mr Stout no doubt fearing that Col Cornelius had some strategy in hand promptly suggested that now was not the proper time to amend the record that the members elect should first be sworn and the record could then be corrected This was [illegible] enough for the President pro tem and the other Democratic Senators, and they all thought that the only way to proceed The President ruled that the first order of business was the administration of the oath Mr Cornelius appealed from the decision Stout moved the previous question The President got in the fog ignored the pending appeal and stated the only business before the Senate to be the administration of the oath Mr Cornelius offered a paper and asked to have it read the Clerk was about to read when the President stopped him Mr Cornelius took the paper and began to read [illegible] it appeared to be the certificate of Mr Sels of Grant the President called to order Mr Cornelius continued to read the President hammered [illegible] great confusion [illegible] Mr Cornelius was heard to say that [illegible] Chairman of the Committee on Credentials had informed him that had the certificate been shown him (Burch) before the report of the committee was made he should have felt himself bound to take notice of it By this time the new members had come forward and Judge Boise being present by invitation to administer the oath Mr Cornelius desisted, and the members were sworn in

ORGANIZATION OF THE SENATE

The Senate then proceeded to a permanent organization Twelve votes were cast for [illegible] Burch Neither the name of Dolph nor Powell was called Dolph insisted on his right to vote as a sworn Senator The President [illegible] recognise his right to vote Burch [illegible] and gave thanks in his usual [illegible] The election of a Chief Clerk being announced as the next thing in order Mr Dolph nominated J C Peebles Mr Hendershott objected [illegible] Mr Dolph being recognized The President ruled Dolph not a member Dolph said he was elected a Senator in 1866, for four years according to the provisions of the Constitution and [illegible] had been sworn in had acted for two years in the office of Senator, he had a right to speak and vote, had a right to all the privileges of a Senator, and he would talk unless put out of the hall by force He was constantly interrupted by the President who used his gavel and repeatedly said he would not recognize him Other Democratic members called to order Mr Dolph, however had his say out amid great confusion Mr Hendershott said he hoped the President would direct that Dolph be removed from the Chamber [Sensation] The President said he supposed Mr Dolph might remain if he would not interfere any more Mr Cornelius here gained the floor, and in his earnest manner protested against this disfranchisement of the county of Multnomah by silencing her sworn Senators He said that they were beyond question entitled to all the rights and privileges of Senators and could not lawfully be deprived of any of them that even the adoption of the report of the Committee on Credentials, did not, upon any construction, deny them more than the right to vote The President said they could not be recognized as Senators He was asked if they had a right to sit within the bar He replied that they had no such right Mr Huston differed he thought they had the right to sit within the bar To settle that question, however, he moved that the courtesy of the Senate be extended to them and that they be permitted to remain Mr Cornelius made the point that such a courtesy could not be granted as the right had never been nor could be taken away The President ruled that all privileges had been taken away A rambling discussion followed of some duration when Mr Huston said he would withdraw his motion Mr Cornelius objected and said that the motion was the property of the Senate and could not be withdrawn except by consent The President ruled that the motion was Huston's property and he could withdraw it

Huston and one or two others said they thought the gentlemen could exercise all privileges except voting, and the President finally recognized the nomination of Peebles by Mr Dolph The vote was then taken and S C Simpson was declared elected Dolph's and Powell's names were not called but Dolph asked to have his name recorded for Peebles No attention was paid, however to this demand nor was his subsequent repeated demands to have his vote recorded treated with any consideration other than jeering remarks, sotto voce from Stout and others

J M Thompson was elected Assistant Clerk Mr Cornelius then said that in his opinion the Senate was doing a gross wrong to Multnomah county by refusing her more than one vote when by the laws she is entitled to two and he moved as a temporary arrangement that Mr Dolph and Mr Powell be allowed to cast a vote alternately Mr Trevitt admitted that Multnomah ought to have two votes, and he moved that Mr Stout be allowed to cast two votes This was seconded by two or three The President ruled both motions out of order Mr Bayley here suggested that the lot to determine which should hold over be cast now He thought the Senate was not maintaining a proper dignity The President said he thought Multnomah ought to be represented by two Senators; but it was the fault of the gentlemen themselves, that neither of them had a voice here The coolness of this was refreshing and produced almost an audible smile everywhere throughout the Chamber Mr Huston moved that lots be now cast Ford objected and made a speech, but nobody could tell what he meant so abstruse and constitutional was he Mr Cornelius objected because the Senate was as yet unorganized, and an unorganized Senate could not determine finally, rights of membership Mr Stout was grieved that Multnomah should be in part unrepresented, but it was not his fault! Considering the part he had taken in the proceedings thus far, how he had taken possession of the total of the county's franchise in the Senate and had urged and voted for the disfranchisement of both Dolph and Powell, this declaration was the coolest and most brazenly impudent of all the [illegible] impudent sayings I remember ever to have heard Mr Huston withdrew the motion

John Thomas Jefferson Ford was then elected Enrolling Clerk, Tho's Lauer Engrossing Clerk D B Hanna Sergeant at Arms, J K Delashmutt Door keeper The Secretary responded to an invitation and administered the oath of office to the President and officers elect

A resolution to ask the Secretary to furnish the usual stationery was adopted A motion to ask that stationery be furnished to Dolph Powell and Sels was lost

In the afternoon a resolution was adopted inviting newspaper reporters within the bar House resolution for joint committee to wait on the Governor Senate resolution to invite ministers to pray etc were adopted

DOLPH DRAWN OUT

Huston offered a resolution directing the clerk to prepare ballots for the allotment of Messrs Dolph and Powell It directed him to write "J N Dolph" on one slip of paper and "D Powell" on another, to put the slips in a box, shake draw one slip, the name first drawn to hold office till June 1870, to be considered as having ceased to be a Senator last June Trevitt moved the previous question, sustained The clerk wrote, put the slips in a long box, shook gently and carefully, drew a slip, read the name "David Powell," just exactly as everybody had expected, nobody, not even Stout nor Trevitt, was surprised or disappointed, and thus Dolph was drawn out, much to the relief of Stout, Trevitt, and the whole Democratic senatorhood to whom he was an ugly thorn And thus was everything made lovely and the Democratic goose [illegible] a desirable slant The spectacle however remains of a county disfranchised an interloper boosted by his own wrong without a contest which at the best [illegible] for him there was [illegible] to his right to sit at all of two sworn Senators ousted from all rights in the Senate and treated with indignity and personal insult of a Senate proceeding to organize with the help of a man John A Dribblesby—who at the best had only a right [illegible] contest, and who was defeated at [illegible] election in just such a political contest [illegible] Multnomah by which Stout claims his seat of a man—F C Sels, of Grant, who holds a certificate of election at the general election in June, 1868—excluded from the Senate and his claims altogether ignored [illegible] a Senate [illegible] two out of [illegible] Senators [illegible] to close and [illegible] between them, for no reason but that [illegible] of them was [illegible] to the Democrats [illegible] a fraud as inexcusable and indefensible [illegible] as revolution itself Let the Democracy and the men who perpetrated the foul wrong answer to the people

IN THE HOUSE

The proceedings in the House beyond the election of permanent officers were devoid of interest

[illegible]

Mr B[illegible] from Benton brings a report [illegible] threatened trouble with the Indians at Siletz in consequence of the late murder of an Indian by a white man near Corvallis They demand a white man's life in return Several of them [illegible] at the Reservation had left through fear [illegible] Simpson however maintains [illegible] and stays there

FROM THE CAPITAL

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

SALEM Sept 16 —In the House Chapman gave notice of a bill regulating the rights of railroad companies

There was a long and ridiculous discussion on a resolution to invite clergymen to open sessions with prayer The resolution was finally adopted [illegible]

[illegible] a motion by Mr Cornelius to spread upon the Journal the credentials of F C Sels Senator elect from Grant county was negatived by a party vote

The House went into joint convention this afternoon and received the message of the Governor The message treats briefly of all the important interests of the State, and is a clear and able document The Governor at the conclusion was warmly congratulated by the members of both political parties The message recommends a reduction of the expense of keeping the insane highly commends the management of the penitentiary recommends some important amendments to the school laws, and pronounces for free schools congratulates the people on the favorable financial condition of the State urges [illegible] impartial encouragement of railroad enterprises recommends the appointment of [illegible] to visit all the States to induce immigration to this State and some other necessary legislation for the reduction of taxes etc

Just before the adjournment of the Senate Trevitt gave notice of a joint resolution to rescind the resolution of last session ratifying the amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to withdraw the assent of this State to the 14th amendment

During last night a Chinaman of this city attempted the murder of a China woman by shooting her and then shot and killed himself The woman is still living but seriously wounded

STATE ITEMS

The Signal reports an abundance of petty thefts about Dallas

A dozen or more immigrant wagons are noticed as having passed through Dallas last week

A road has been surveyed and located from Jacksonville via Emigrant Creek to Link River in the Klamath country

A party out hunting the mail robbers in Baker county a few days ago surprised a band of elk, and killed one weighing 700 pounds

The Chinese at Jacksonville have a band of music which greatly disturbs the Sentinel. That paper seems disposed to join the Unionist of Salem in making a raid on "squawks"

A brute named Fred Miller in Polk county beat his wife nearly to death last week, dragged her across a corn field and threw her into a hole which had been dug to obtain water for stock He has been arrested

The La Grande Times advertises for "a confident Democrat, seized and possessed of five or six hundred solid dollars, who will deposit the same beside that beautiful brick (no brick Pomeroy) now in Mallory and Coggan's safe, and awaiting the advent of a sanguine Seymour and Blair man The "brick" will find no takers

Messrs Meacham and Slater candidates on the respective electoral tickets in Eastern Oregon, have arranged for a canvass of that part of the State Their list of appointments for speaking embrace all the principal places in that quarter The Republicans should at once begin the campaign with vigor in all parts of the State

The Sentinel says Capt Applegate, of the Reservation of Klamath Lake, has kindly furnished us with several samples of grain from that section We have a bunch of oats well filled, the straw being fully six feet in length, some very fine bald barley and a bunch of wheat heavy and prolific as raised anywhere Much of the barley on the Reservation farm will yield eighty bushels to the acre, and there is no longer any doubt of that section being a good grain country

THE CHRONICLES.

And it came to pass in the third year of the reign of George the Third who was ruler over the land of Webfoot that the news went throughout all the land that KOHN & FISHEL at No 91 Front street Portland were selling Dry Goods and Clothing at fabulously low prices and all the people heard it and they straightway came unto that place; and when they had demanded the price of KOHN & FISHEL'S store they marveled [illegible] The half has not been told [illegible] kinds of Clothing and Dry Goods [illegible] much cheaper than at any other place in all the land of Webfoot And from that day even until now the people have come in great numbers to buy their goods of KOHN & FISHEL

Vigorous Vitality.—The best defense against disease is a vigorous vitality Disease is simply a struggle between the life power and the invisible enemies that assail it and the result depends upon the relative strength of the antagonistic principles In proportion to the vigor and energy of the physique and the constitution is their capacity to resist and fight off the morbid influences which produce sickness It is a well known fact that active poisons affect in different degrees the weak and the strong The dose of opium or of arsenic that will suffice to kill a child will scarcely sicken a stalwart man It is the same with the aerial poisons which produce epidemic and endemic fevers dysenteries diarrhea and the like Their effect upon the system depends upon its power of resistance Augment these from this resistant power if you would escape these evils The tonic agent necessary to effect this object has been provided in

GRAIN CROP OF 1868.—From all sections of the United States reports come [illegible] of the increased acreage and bountiful yields of the grain crops. [illegible] This especially true of the Pacific [illegible] production is unusually large. California [illegible] millions of bushels of wheat [illegible] while Nevada and Washington Territory [illegible] in excess of previous [illegible]. We have no data from which [illegible] of the grain crop of the [illegible] State [illegible] years previous have produced [illegible]. Crops never fail in Oregon [illegible] better than ordinary, and an important [illegible] of our farmers [illegible] in the markets of the world with which [illegible] relations as will make the shipment of [illegible] a profitable investment. The present [illegible] in the East are too low with no immediate [illegible] of an advance to furnish any margin with [illegible] present shipping facilities to offer much inducement to shippers in that direction. The pending [illegible] between this port and New York [illegible] Brockway & Mercer will render [illegible] this now ruling rates hold at the [illegible] a chance for our shippers to reap a [illegible] the East. With direct shipping [illegible] with China a market can be [illegible] much of what the Pacific coast has to [illegible] an effort will be made to enlarge the [illegible]. The millions of China and Japan must [illegible] and the country that acquires the ultimate control of [illegible] in the supply of breadstuffs will reap an [illegible] reward. The free trade system which [illegible] adopted through out the whole empire will [illegible] greatly increased demand for [illegible] and he who introduces our surplus [illegible] will open a market for all [illegible] coming time [illegible] on our coast. We are aware that [illegible] are not great consumers of bread [illegible] but the introduction of it among them will gr[illegible] into its use, and, like all other people [illegible] come to consider it as the "staff of [illegible]" question as to whether the grain [illegible] this year, is going to find a profitable market [illegible] nearly affects our immediate interests, [illegible] of the matter under present circumstances [illegible] to believe that the demand will not be so great [illegible] the supply as to produce any material advance [illegible] prices. In our own market as yet [illegible] in grain have transpired. The [illegible] smaller than was anticipated, owing [illegible] the very fact that the extraordinary quant[illegible] the farmers are a longer time than [illegible] it ready for the market. That which [illegible] of excellent quality, and in [illegible] as follows: wheat 65 to 70 cents per bushel [illegible] to 50 cents. Buyers seem inclined to wait for [illegible] before making extensive invest[illegible] are holding back for an advance [illegible]. From all we can learn in the premises [illegible] not much ground to hope for the latter for some time at least.

JEWISH NEW YEAR.—Yesterday evening at 6 o'clock [illegible] New Year's day of our Jewish fellow citizens [illegible] from evening to evening. It is the [illegible] day of the year 5629 of the Hebrew calendar. The [illegible] in this city with the usual [illegible] and interesting ceremonies. The Festival of the [illegible] in the Hebrew, Rosh ha Shana, is [illegible] occasions in the calendar of the Jew [illegible] only from the fact of its being the new [illegible] but from the deeper symbolic character [illegible] in this month, and the observance [illegible] commanded by the religious [illegible] will be held to-day at [illegible] by Rev. Dr. Schwab and from what we [illegible] gentlemen, we have no doubt [illegible] solemn and interesting occasion [illegible] to those composing the [illegible] merchants closed their places of business [illegible] Monday, and they will transact no [illegible] of any character during the festival, but [illegible] in the various exercises connected [illegible] of the day. We congratulate [illegible] circumstances under which we [illegible] this important epoch in their history and [illegible] them a happy and prosperous New Year.

STATE FAIR.—The State Fair of the present year will [illegible] be more successful than on any pre[illegible] A. J. Dufur, Esq., President of the State [illegible] Society, made us a brief call yesterday and [illegible] from one of the members of the [illegible] which stated that seats capable of [illegible] persons had been erected in front [illegible] picket fence will be constructed [illegible] brick, with gates, through which no [illegible] except those concerned in the [illegible] of excellent hay have been pur[illegible] for the use of those who exhibit [illegible] wells have been dug at various [illegible] and every arrangement made to [illegible] gathering of the whole people and [illegible] and advantage to our young [illegible] of Oregon, every one that can [illegible] determination to do something [illegible] material advancement of the country [illegible] who are sojourning in our midst at [illegible] the great resources of this [illegible].

[illegible] For the information of strangers visit[illegible] the facts that the rooms of the [illegible] the east side of First street, be[illegible] Library Rooms are on the [illegible] street, between Alder and Morrison [illegible] are in the Court House. The City [illegible] at the corner of Front and Alder [illegible] building is on the west side of [illegible]. The U. S. District Court rooms [illegible] Metropolitan Hotel, on Front street. The [illegible] Collector's offices, together with the [illegible] west side, are at the corner of [illegible] streets. The office of the Post Side Rail[illegible] building, corner of Front and Wash[illegible]. By remembering these, or by preserving [illegible] who are not acquainted in the city will [illegible] several important places without [illegible].

[illegible] There was not a quorum present last [illegible] was no meeting of the Common Council [illegible] the Chair the roll of members was [illegible] responding to wit: Councilmen Hoeser, [illegible] and Porter. Mr. Hallock [illegible] Mr. Ripley dated at Canyon City [illegible] to an accident by which he (Mr. Ripley) [illegible] from a buggy and somewhat badly hurt, [illegible] leave of absence. The Clerk was di[illegible] note of Mr. Ripley's request, and the [illegible] without transacting any business.

[illegible] have no further accounts of the fire [illegible] but it is rumored that on the east [illegible] the destruction of property [illegible]. We heard yesterday that the [illegible] fences on the farms of Mr. Cully and [illegible] house of one Allen, had been totally [illegible] smoke continues to be very dense and [illegible] the fires are still raging.

The Democratic Outrage in the Senate

MASTERLY REVIEW BY MR DOLPH OF THE WHOLE MATTER

AN UNANSWERED AND UNANSWERABLE ARGUMENT

Mr President—Senator [illegible] I am gratified [illegible] the gentleman from [illegible] considers himself a Christian gentleman and professes [illegible] these [illegible] his conscience. It is true that he has [illegible] I feel confident that I can convince him that the report of the committee on credentials is untrue so far as it relates to Multnomah and Grant counties and whether I can convince any one or not I shall raise my voice against the adoption of the report

The Democratic portion of the Senate may be able to carry out the iniquitous programme they appear to have marked out for themselves for the organization of this body but I do not [illegible] that after they have made up their record [illegible] the party to which they belong shall escape the stigma which must follow trickery and open disregard of even the form of law or decency

What is the condition of this body at this time? One half the members of the Senate including those not sworn assemble in the Senate Chamber at an unusual hour, an hour earlier than the usual hour of meeting of the Senate and in the absence of the other half of the Senate although within call proceeded to a temporary organization and for presiding officer select a person whose seat in the Senate is contested They also allow two persons to participate in their proceedings who have no more right to do so than any one of those gentlemen standing outside of the door of the Senate They appointed a committee of three, all Democrats, to examine and report on the credentials of Senators. That committee has reported that a Senator duly elected and presenting his certificate in due form of law from Grant county is not entitled to a seat, and that a person who never had a certificate of election and never was elected and never had a seat in the Senate, and who ran upon the Democratic ticket at the last election for the office of Senator from Grant county, and was defeated is entitled to a seat in this body as Senator from that county. They say that Mr Dribblesby was a contestant for that office at the last session of the Senate that is so And the Senate allowed him ninety days to furnish evidence to show that he was entitled to a seat, instead of Mr Stearns, who had received the certificate of election No evidence was taken or furnished the Senate and Mr Stearns resigned and left a vacancy, and both parties in that county proceeded to nominate and vote for a candidate for Senator to fill the vacancy Mr Sels running as the Union candidate and Mr Dribblesby as the Democratic candidate, Mr Sels receiving a majority of five votes

But suppose the evidence had been taken and furnished the Senate, and upon a hearing before a proper Committee or before the Senate Mr Dribblesby would appear to be entitled to a seat This is not a report of a Committee on Elections but a Committee on Credentials What credentials has Mr Dribblesby presented to the Committee and how do they ignore the certificate of Mr Sels? This Committee on Credentials appointed by an unorganized and revolutionary body, attempt to judge of the right of Senators to seats in the Senate, to remove those who have been regularly sworn in for a full Senatorial term, and to put others in their places without any inquiry as to whether they are entitled and then the previous question is moved upon the adoption of their report, and you propose to gag the minority thing down the throats of one half the Senate without a hearing This unorganized body has no right to judge of the rights of these Senators to seats in the Senate Such questions can only be determined by the Senate when organized

Can you justify yourselves before the right thinking men of your own party by such an arbitrary, illegal and unusual proceeding as this?

But this Democratic committee also report that Landing Stout is entitled to a seat as Senator from Multnomah county and that before either my colleague or myself shall be allowed to vote in this body, we shall determine which shall have a seat, or hold over, and which shall go out It recites what is false, in fact—that one of the holding over Senators from Multnomah county was elected for two years. This is a still greater violation of the law than the other proposition I think if the Democratic portion of this body have agreed to sustain that report, (as I understand they have), they cannot understand the matter at all.

I propose to briefly examine the question of the right of my colleague and myself to seats in this body, and show that Multnomah county is already fully represented, and that Judge Stout has no more right to a seat in the Senate than he has to the office of Governor of the State. The Constitution of the State provided that the Senate should at first consist of sixteen members, and that at the first session they should be divided into two classes, so that one half should be elected every two years I will read that portion of the Constitution It is as follows

Art 4 Sec 1, Sub 2 "The Senate shall consist of sixteen members" * * *

Subdivision 4 of the same section "The Senators shall be elected for the term of four years, and Representatives for the term of two years from the day next after their general election provided, however, that the Senators elect at the first session of the Legislative Assembly under this Constitution shall be divided by lot into two equal classes, as nearly as may be and the seats of the Senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of two years and those of the second class at the expiration of four years"

This allotment was made It was also provided that when the number of Senators are increased the added Senators are annexed by lot to one or the other of these classes so as to keep the number as nearly equal as possible I will read that clause—"And in case of the increase of the number of Senators, they should be so annexed by lot to one or the other of the two classes as to keep them as nearly equal as possible."

The first [illegible] in the number of Senators was in 1862 The Senatorial districts were then [illegible] and a new apportionment was made, increasing the number of Senators to eighteen. Baker and Umatilla counties were organized and given Joint Senator, and Clackamas and Wasco counties were each given a Senator, both counties prior to that time having been included in one Senatorial district and represented in the Senate by Col. Kelley. Here then were two added Senators in one session. The Senate should have determined beforehand which was the added Senator, the one from Clackamas or the one from Wasco, because I hold that the counties themselves have no power to determine this question, and I they should also have proceeded to annex by lot the Senator to be elected from one of those counties and the Senator to be elected from Baker and Umatilla, one to each class of Senators Then one of them would have been elected for two years, and I contend that before the election is the only time that an allotment can be legally made. But the Senate did not make any such designation as to which was the added Senator and to this day it does not appear whether the gentleman you have honored as your presiding officer, or the Senator from Clackamas county is the added Senator

I would suggest that if you mean to deal fairly with this question, before you require myself and colleague to cast lots, you begin at the beginning and require those Senators to do the same thing

In 1864, the State was again re districted and Grant and Union counties were organized and each allowed a Senator and Umatilla and Baker counties given a Senator each, and Multnomah county given another Senator The Senator from Baker (Mr Ison) the Senator from Umatilla (Mr Ford) the Senator from Grant (Mr Sels) or as your Democratic Committee on Credentials has it, Mr Dribblesby and the added Senator from Multnomah, are all added Senators elected at the same election, under the same law sworn in at the same time have held over terms for the same time, and have the same unexpired term to hold These senators were not annexed to either class before election, and were all, as I believe therefore, elected for four years and sworn in for that time What shadow of law is there to say that any one of these added Senators was elected for any other time than four years and in what respect does the added Senator from Multnomah differ from the others that this Committee of this unorganized, self constituted body can say that either my colleague or myself was elected for two years?

If we are going to be allotted now, why not allot all the added Senators, six in number and give the added Senator from Multnomah a chance to draw for a four years term or at least why not treat all the Senators added the same year and by the same law alike and have them annexed by lot to the two classes?

Where is your authority under the Constitution for arbitrarily thrusting a senator out of his seat before the expiration of his term?

But it would not suit your purpose to have an allotment according to the Constitution and laws. It would [illegible] more Democrats than [illegible] and so you prefer [illegible] arbitrarily [illegible] get a majority in the Senate

Much has been said about the resolution introduced in the Senate by Senator J[illegible] I have before me the Journal of the Senate That resolution simply proposed to have it determined by lot which was the oldest Senator from Multnomah county—my colleague or myself The resolution was first adopted, and then reconsidered, and laid upon the table, by a majority of two, the Democratic Senators Miller Ford and [illegible] voting to reconsider and to lay on the table This resolution did not provide that one of the Senators from Multnomah should go out, but it contemplated that when it was determined who the oldest Senator was that he should be allotted with the other added Senators by lot Our Democratic friends were shrewd enough to see what would be the effect of this allotment and voted down the resolution And we have already seen that at that time there was the same necessity for Senators [illegible] and Donnell to determine which was the added Senator as for my colleague and myself

But it is claimed that Judge Stout is entitled to his seat in the Senate because the Union party in the County Convention nominated a candidate for Senator If this is so, why not apply the same argument in the case of Grant county [illegible] going it is in the other There Mr Dribblesby ran against Mr Sels and was defeated If county conventions make the laws and interpret the Constitution and determine the rights of Senators to seats why do you go back to the election of 1866 for a pretense to give Mr Dribblesby a seat But the rights of a Senator here cannot be determined in any such way In Multnomah county a few men—for purposes best known to themselves start the idea of nominating a Senator, and without knowing the facts or looking at the law although no notice of the election of a Senator has been given by the County Clerk they surprise the Convention by proposing to nominate a Senator, and before the delegates can be informed in relation to the matter, the nomination is made But suppose the Convention had nominated a candidate for Governor and claimed to have elected him would that have affected the rights of the present incumbent?

But suppose upon an allotment of added Senators the added Senator from Multnomah county should draw a four years term can Multnomah county under the existing law, have three Senators? And in any event until there is an allotment is there any vacancy And if no vacancy can there be any election You might as well have elected a Senator from Linn county and in supposition that one of the Senators from that county would die before the session of the Senate as to elect a Senator from Multnomah county upon the supposition that there might be an allotment and the allotment might create a vacancy

I have now presented you with the facts It does not require a lawyer to see that I have stated the truth, and that it cannot be gainsaid You all know that it is so and he that runneth may read Judge Stout will not risk his reputation as a lawyer by contradicting a single position. You are already convinced what is the right, but fear of party and your caucus agreement may compel you to do what is wrong If in the face of the facts and in violation of law and every rule of decency you are bound to carry out your infamous programme, go on Make your record! inky blackness and let it go forth to the indignation of an enlightened public It will meet with universal condemnation, [illegible] the right thinking men of your own party, and it will return to you the principal actors and the party you represent

PORTABLE

SELF ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous manner than has hitherto been discovered

[illegible] derived from the use of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows

[illegible] fire in a small scale and its rapid and uncontrollable increase owing to the fact that at the time of its commencement (when every moment's delay in checking it is of the utmost importance) no means are [illegible]

The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills this [illegible]

It is always ready for use though standing unused for years

It puts out fire instantly

It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose

It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most expert Fireman

It is portable and easily handled as a bucket of water

It possesses within itself the power of a force pump and as effective as a Steam Engine

It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene, Tar, Naphtaline and combustible materials
